

OTG Latin America ETF (OTGL) Included Among 16 ETFs to Watch in 2026 by Bloomberg Trillions

(January 21, 2026) – OTG Asset Management, LTD announced that the OTG Latin America ETF (OTGL) was highlighted on the Bloomberg Trillions podcast as part of its 2026 ETF outlook. Bloomberg Intelligence analysts Athanasios Psarofagis and James Seyffart, who helped write the team's annual report, discussed 16 ETFs to watch.

The OTG Latin America ETF (Nasdaq: OTGL) offers investors actively managed exposure to equity markets across Latin America and seeks to identify opportunities that may be overlooked. OTGL combines OTG's on-the-ground research with disciplined stock selection in an effort to identify inefficiencies across Latin America's evolving markets.

“We are honored to be included among the 16 ETFs highlighted by Bloomberg Trillions,” said Mauricio Alvarez, CEO and Portfolio Manager. “We remain focused on applying disciplined and active management to identify opportunities across Latin America.”

Important Information

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of the Fund carefully before investing. This and additional information can be found in the Fund's prospectus, which may be obtained by calling 888.716.7116. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing.

Investing involves risk. Loss of principal is possible.

ETFs are subject to additional risks that do not apply to conventional mutual funds, including the risks that the market price of an ETF's shares may trade at a premium or discount to its net asset value, an active secondary trading market may not develop or be maintained, or trading may be halted by the exchange in which they trade, which may impact an ETF's ability to sell its shares.

Shares of any ETF are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the ETF. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns.

The risks of investing in foreign companies, including those located in emerging market countries, can increase the potential for losses in the Fund and may include currency fluctuations, political and economic instability, less government regulation, less publicly available information, limited trading markets, and differences in financial reporting standards, including recordkeeping standards, less stringent regulation of securities markets, and differences in accounting methods.

Diversification does not eliminate the risk of experiencing investment loss.
